Foreword

As WE created this yearbook, we sought to please you —the student body of Washington High School. In this book we have attempted to catch and perpetuate for you the spirit of the campus, the students, the faculty, the staff, and all the life which has made up your school year. The work, the play, the seriousness, the humor—all the contrasts that can be found here we have tried to bring together in this one book made JUST FOR YOU.

Sincerely yours,

Carolyn Zody

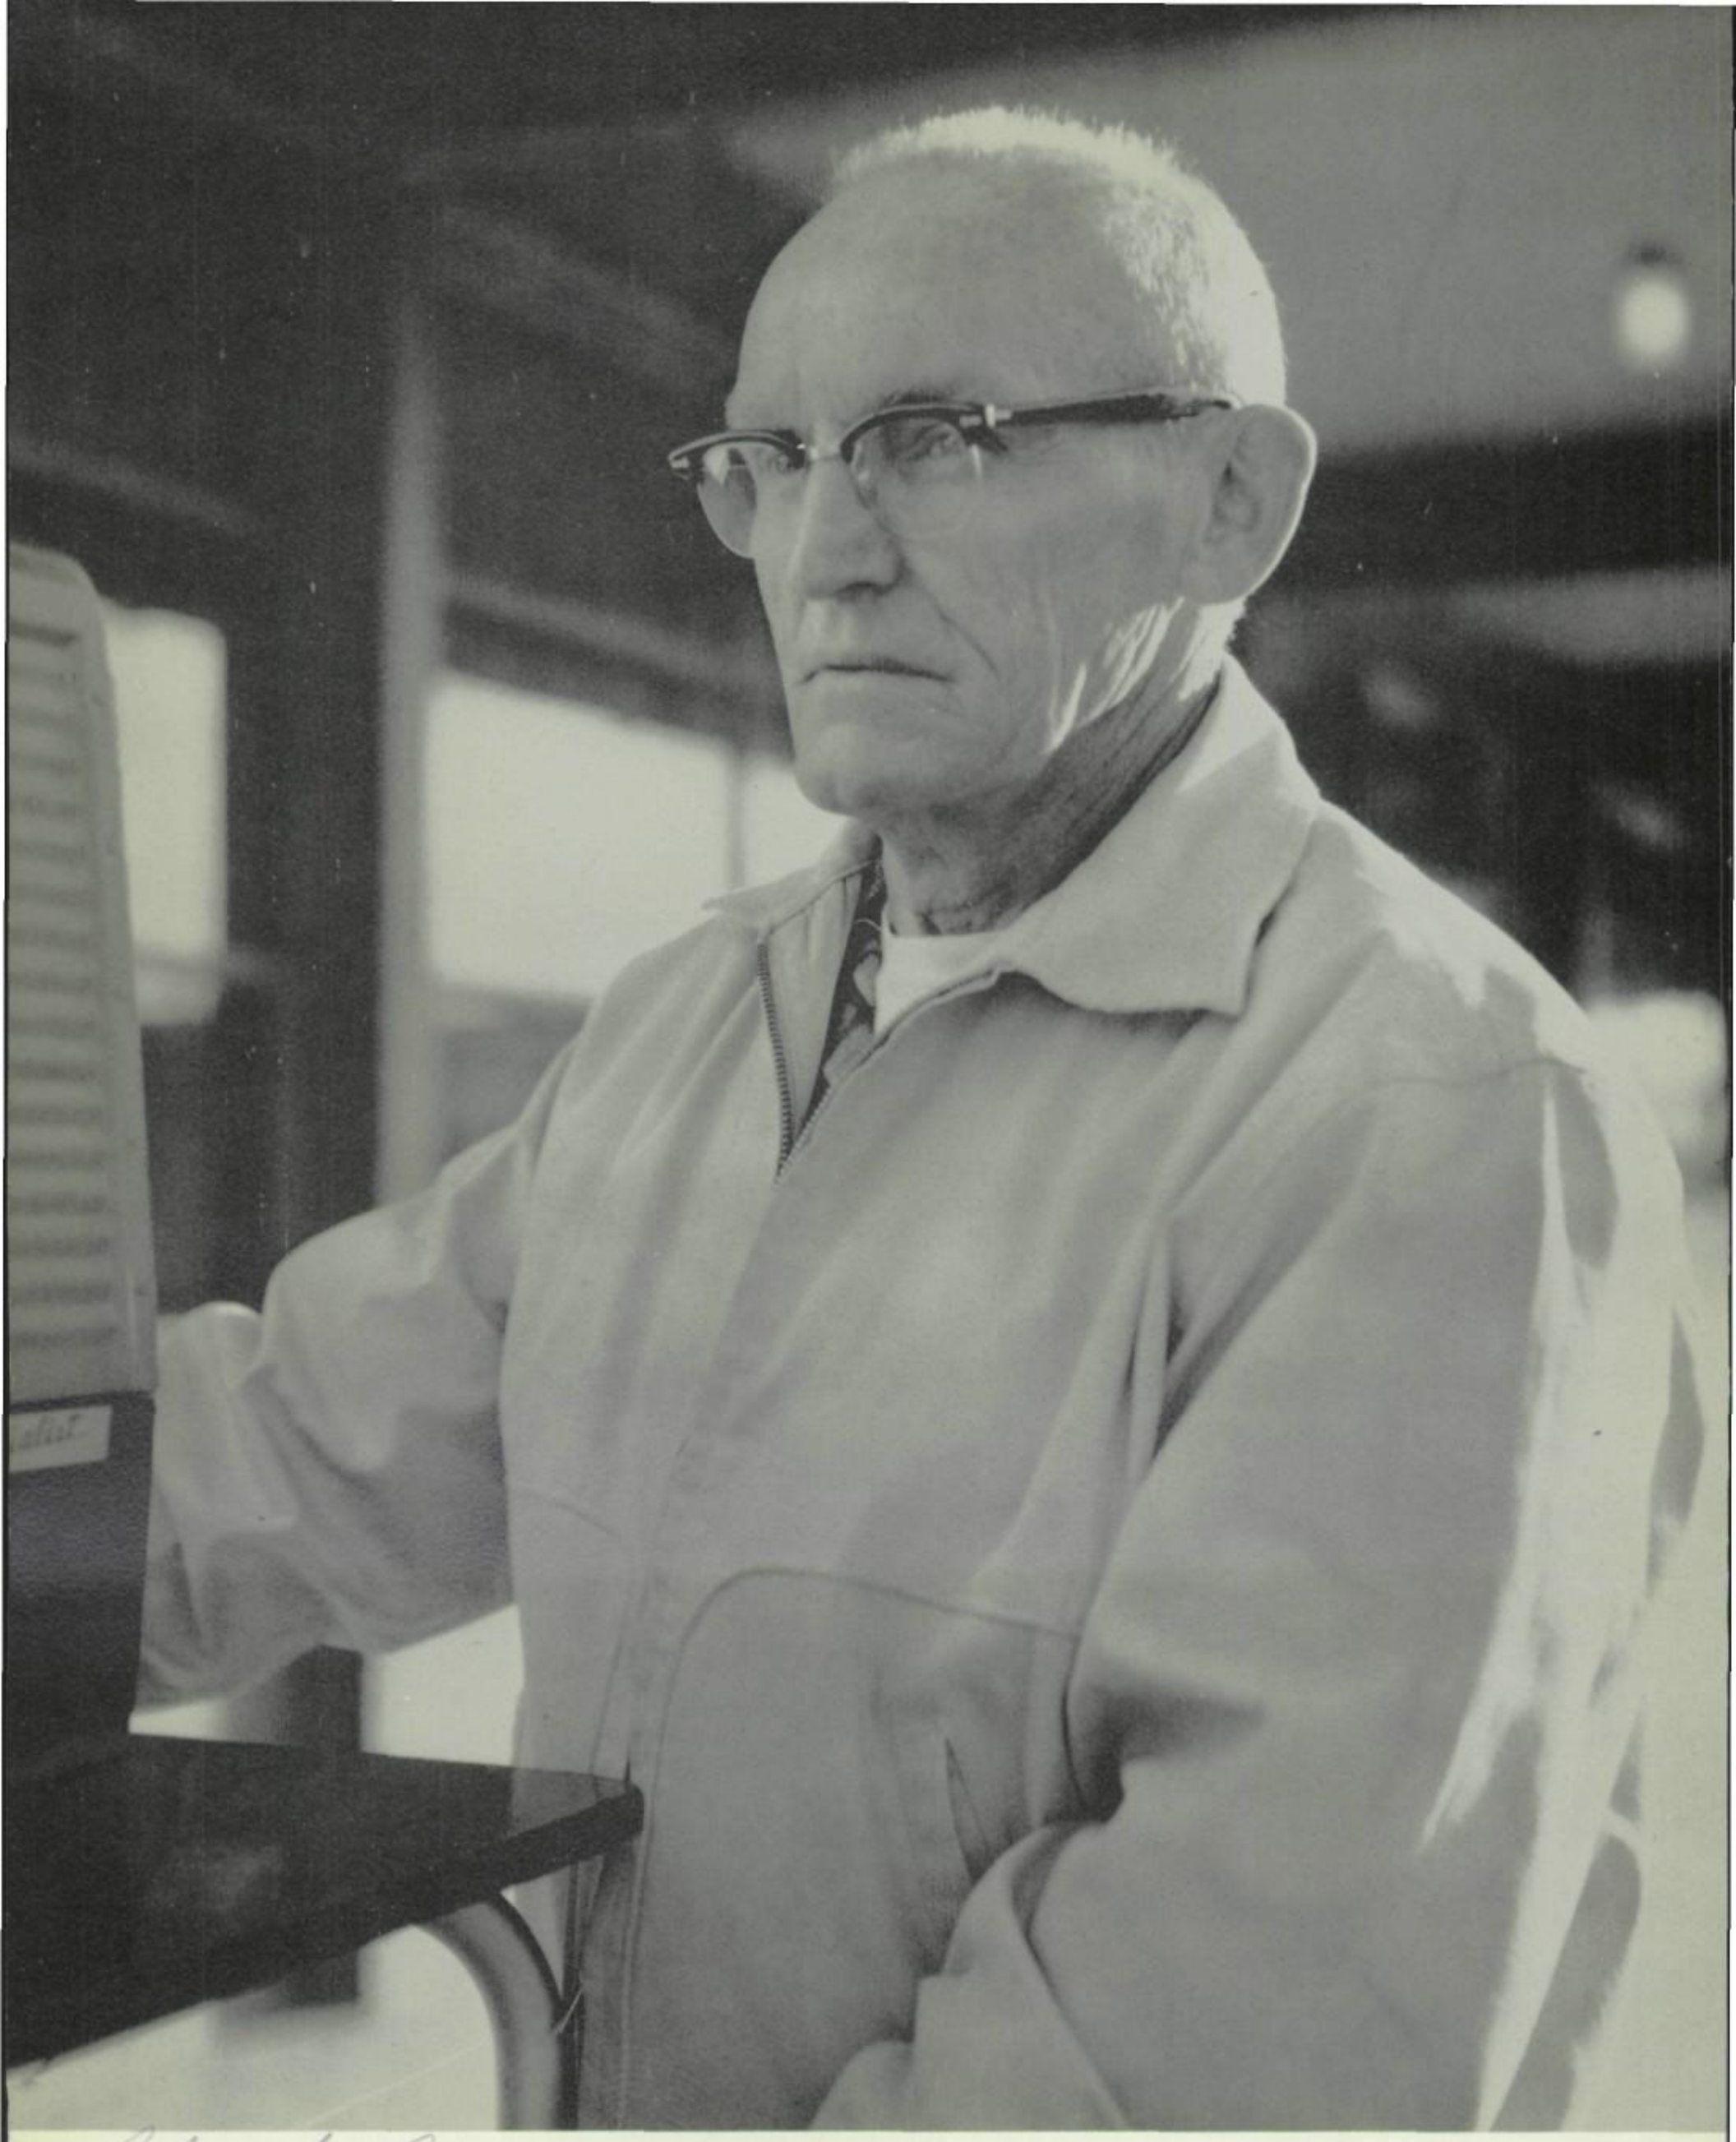
Annual Queen Jerry Hart

It is not the title Annual Queen that gives a girl the tremendous prestige and honor bestowed by this achievement, but the qualifications that must be met before a girl can attain this honor, which makes it one of the most coveted at W.H.S. The Annual Queen is chosen by popular vote of the annual staff. During her four years at W.H.S. Jerry has been active in these clubs: G.A.A. 1, 2, 3, 4; G.A.A. Council 2; Bowling Club 1, 2, 3; Mgr. 2; Badminton Club 2; J.V. Cheerleader 2; Future Nurses Club 1, 2; Y-Teens 3, 4; Lettergirls 4. Jerry has also served on these committees: Decorations Committee for Sweetheart Formal; Float Committee for Homecoming; and Publicity Committee for the Christmas Formal.



Lots of Luck
Mac

Mr. James C. McCann
("Little Mac")

Dedication

The 1963 Panorama is proudly and respectfully dedicated to Mr. James C. McCann. Those who know him can only approve of our choice of "Little Mac" as being the right one. We hold him, as the most popular man on campus and long-time friend, in high esteem for his unselfish devotion to Washington High and its student body. Dances, pep rallies, assemblies, games—these are but a few of the activities that involve the services of this untiring and patient man, who has put first above all things the school and the people within it.

Tom,
You're one of the greatest guys in the whole junior class
Boy, Cols.'s love was really our year!
I hope we can always be really good friends
Love ya

Academics

A variety of interests mingled with a faculty skilled in many fields combined with a desire to learn provides a well-rounded background for any student. A lack of skilled teachers leaves a gap impossible to fill. Washington High School's faculty leaves no such hole. An efficient School Board, an organized administration and a cooperative faculty are essential to keep the school running smoothly.

School Board meetings are the cornerstone to school activities. This is a typical example of such a meeting.

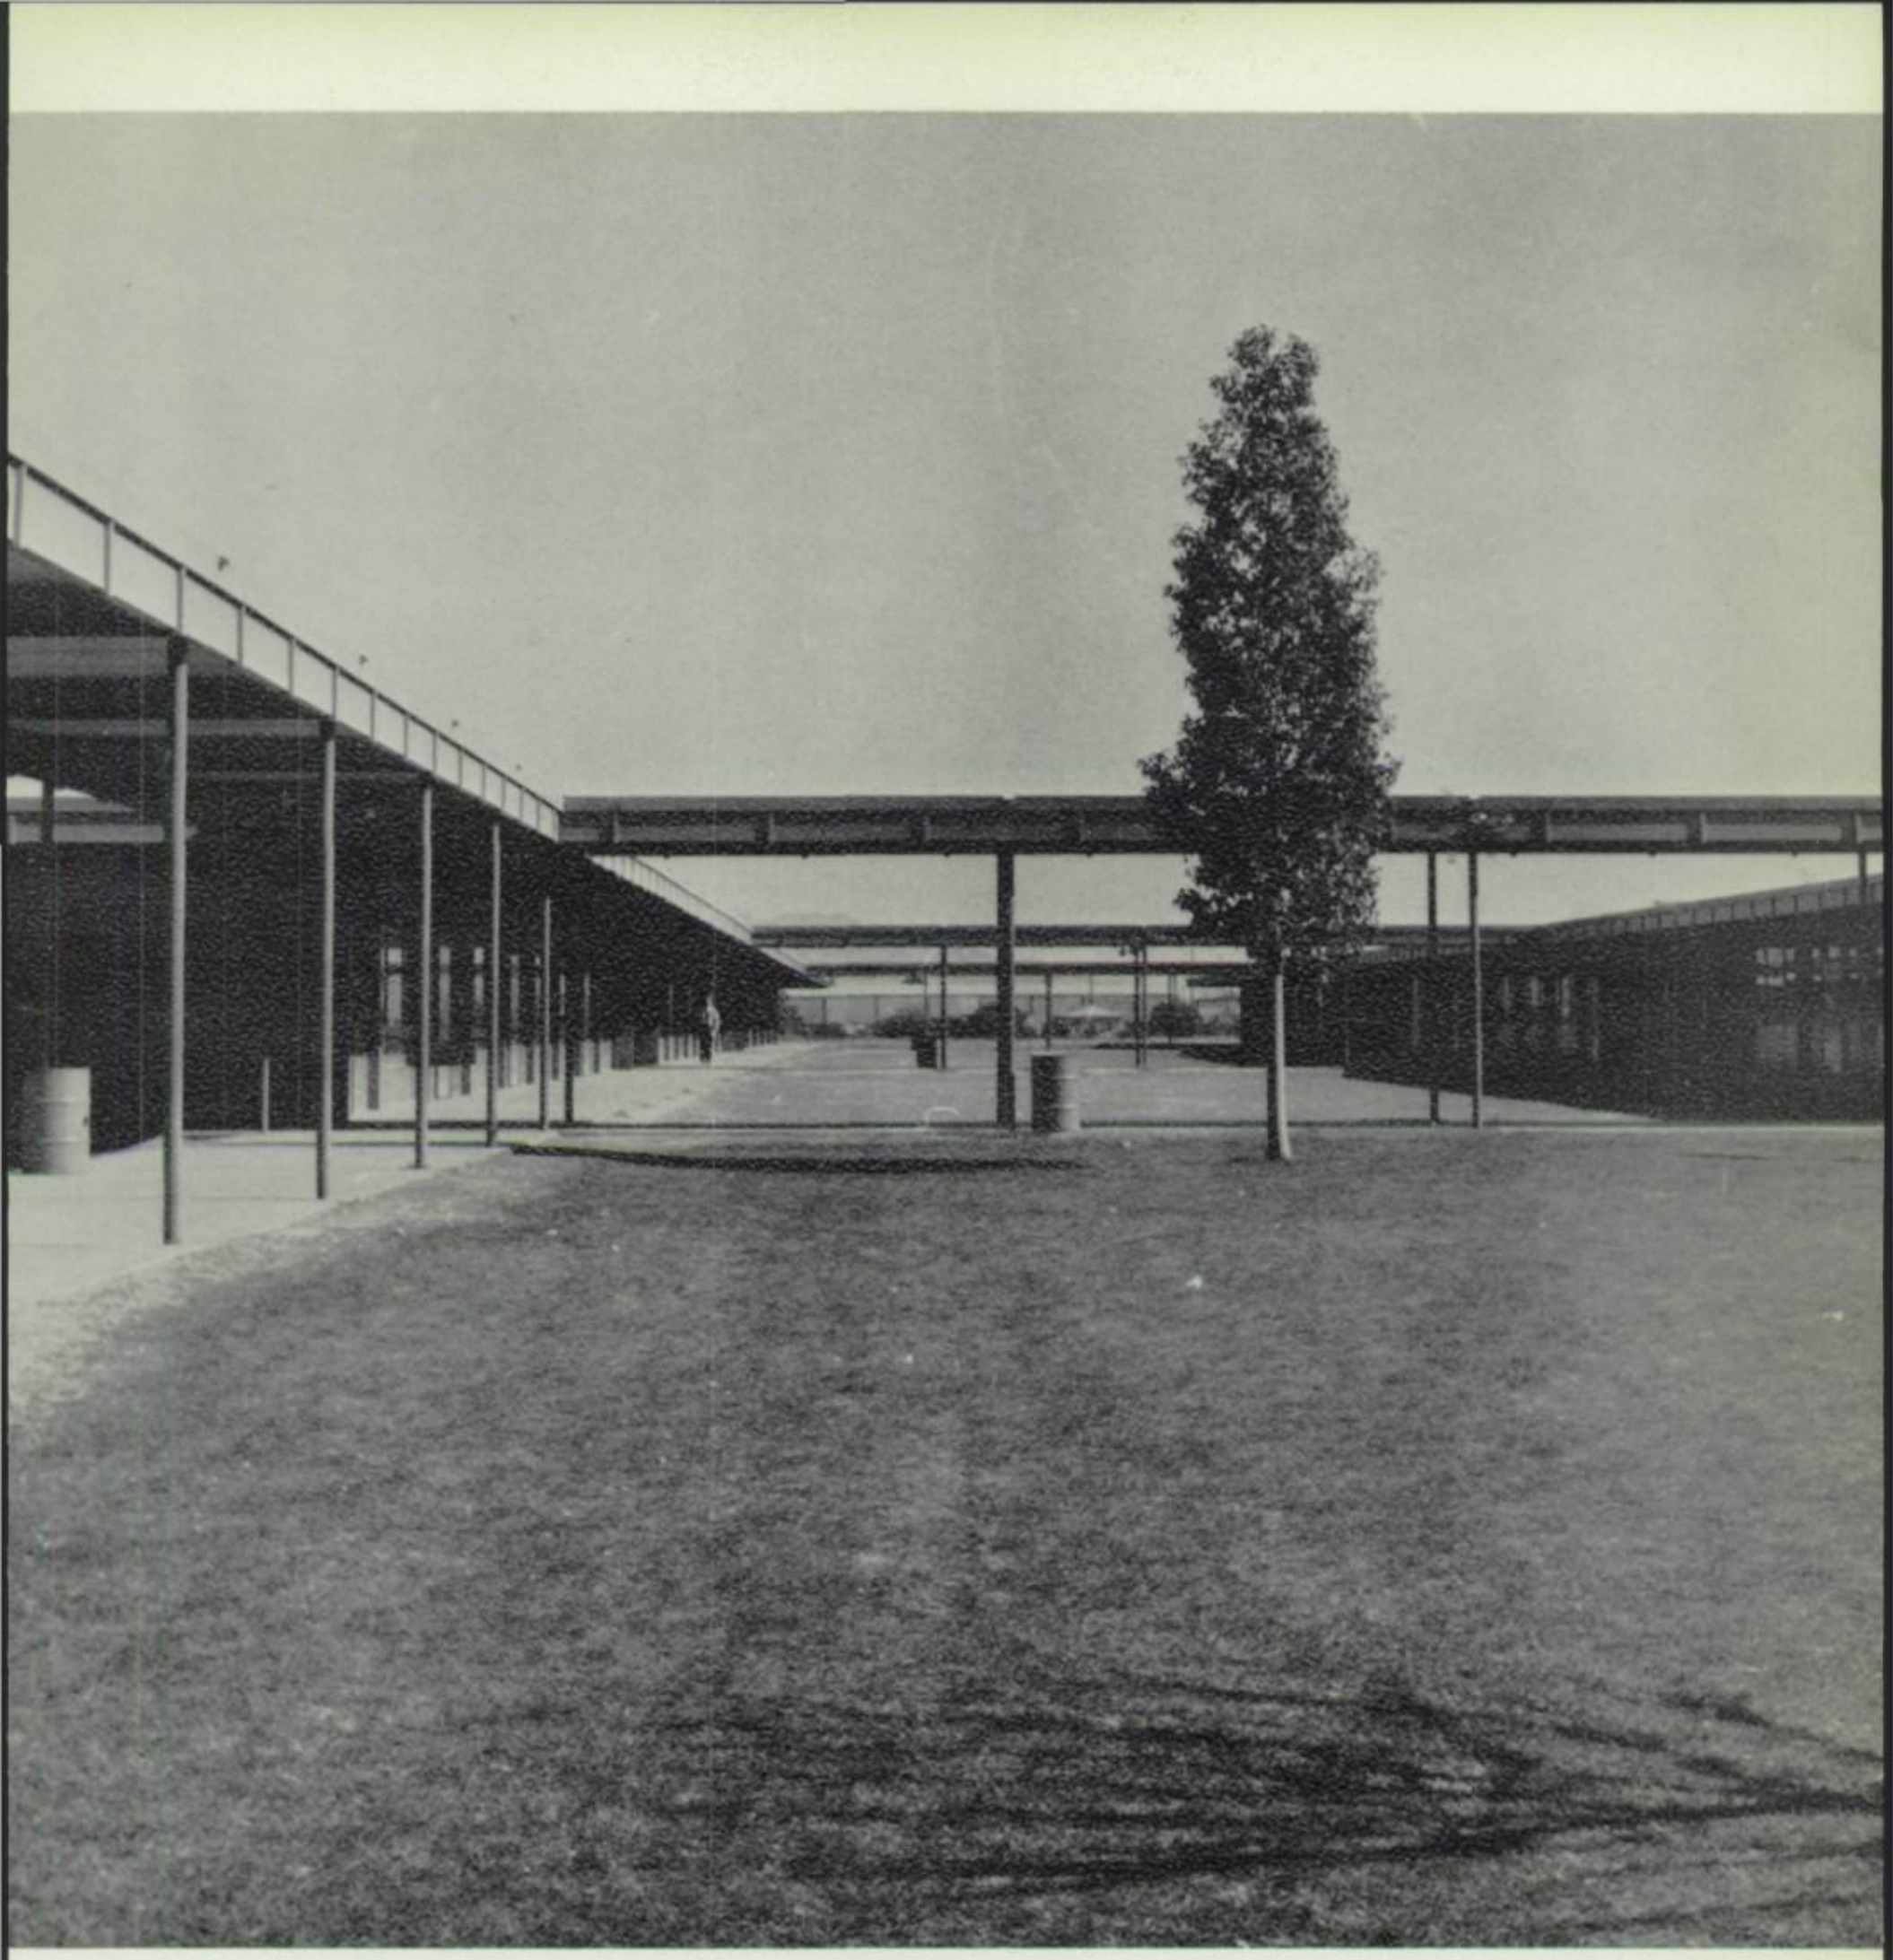
MR. WILLIAM BERRY
Principal

These three men are perhaps the most important asset this school has. The absence of any of these men would be more than sorely felt in the smooth operation of the school. They are always on the job and never lacking in their responsibilities to the school and the district. No matter if the problems are big or small, simple or complex, their help in solving them is a constant reminder of their service and experience to the citizens of Washington High School.

MR. EDWARD COSPER
Assistant Principal

MR. JOHN IRWIN
Assistant Principal



Calm and peaceful Washington High School rests after a busy school day. During the schedule hours over 1,800 students attend classes ranging from the liberal arts to vocational training. The responsibility of a smooth running school rests on the shoulders of three individuals, the principal, Mr. Berry, and his assistants, Mr. Cosper and Mr. Irwin.

Mrs. Myrtle George attended the University of Illinois, Northern Western University and the Arizona State University. This is her first year at WHS.

Mr. Emmett Murray is not only a counselor but he is the sponsor of American Field Service. The AFS is the organization which helps the exchange students find homes here and abroad. Mr. Murray conducts the interviews at the beginning of the year to determine who will be the foreign exchange student for the following year.

Mr. Bernard Jones has been a counselor at Washington High School for seven years. He graduated from Ohio State University, University of Arizona and Arizona State University. During college he was All Ohio University Basketball star. Previously he was a basketball coach for nine years. His hobbies include sports and travel.

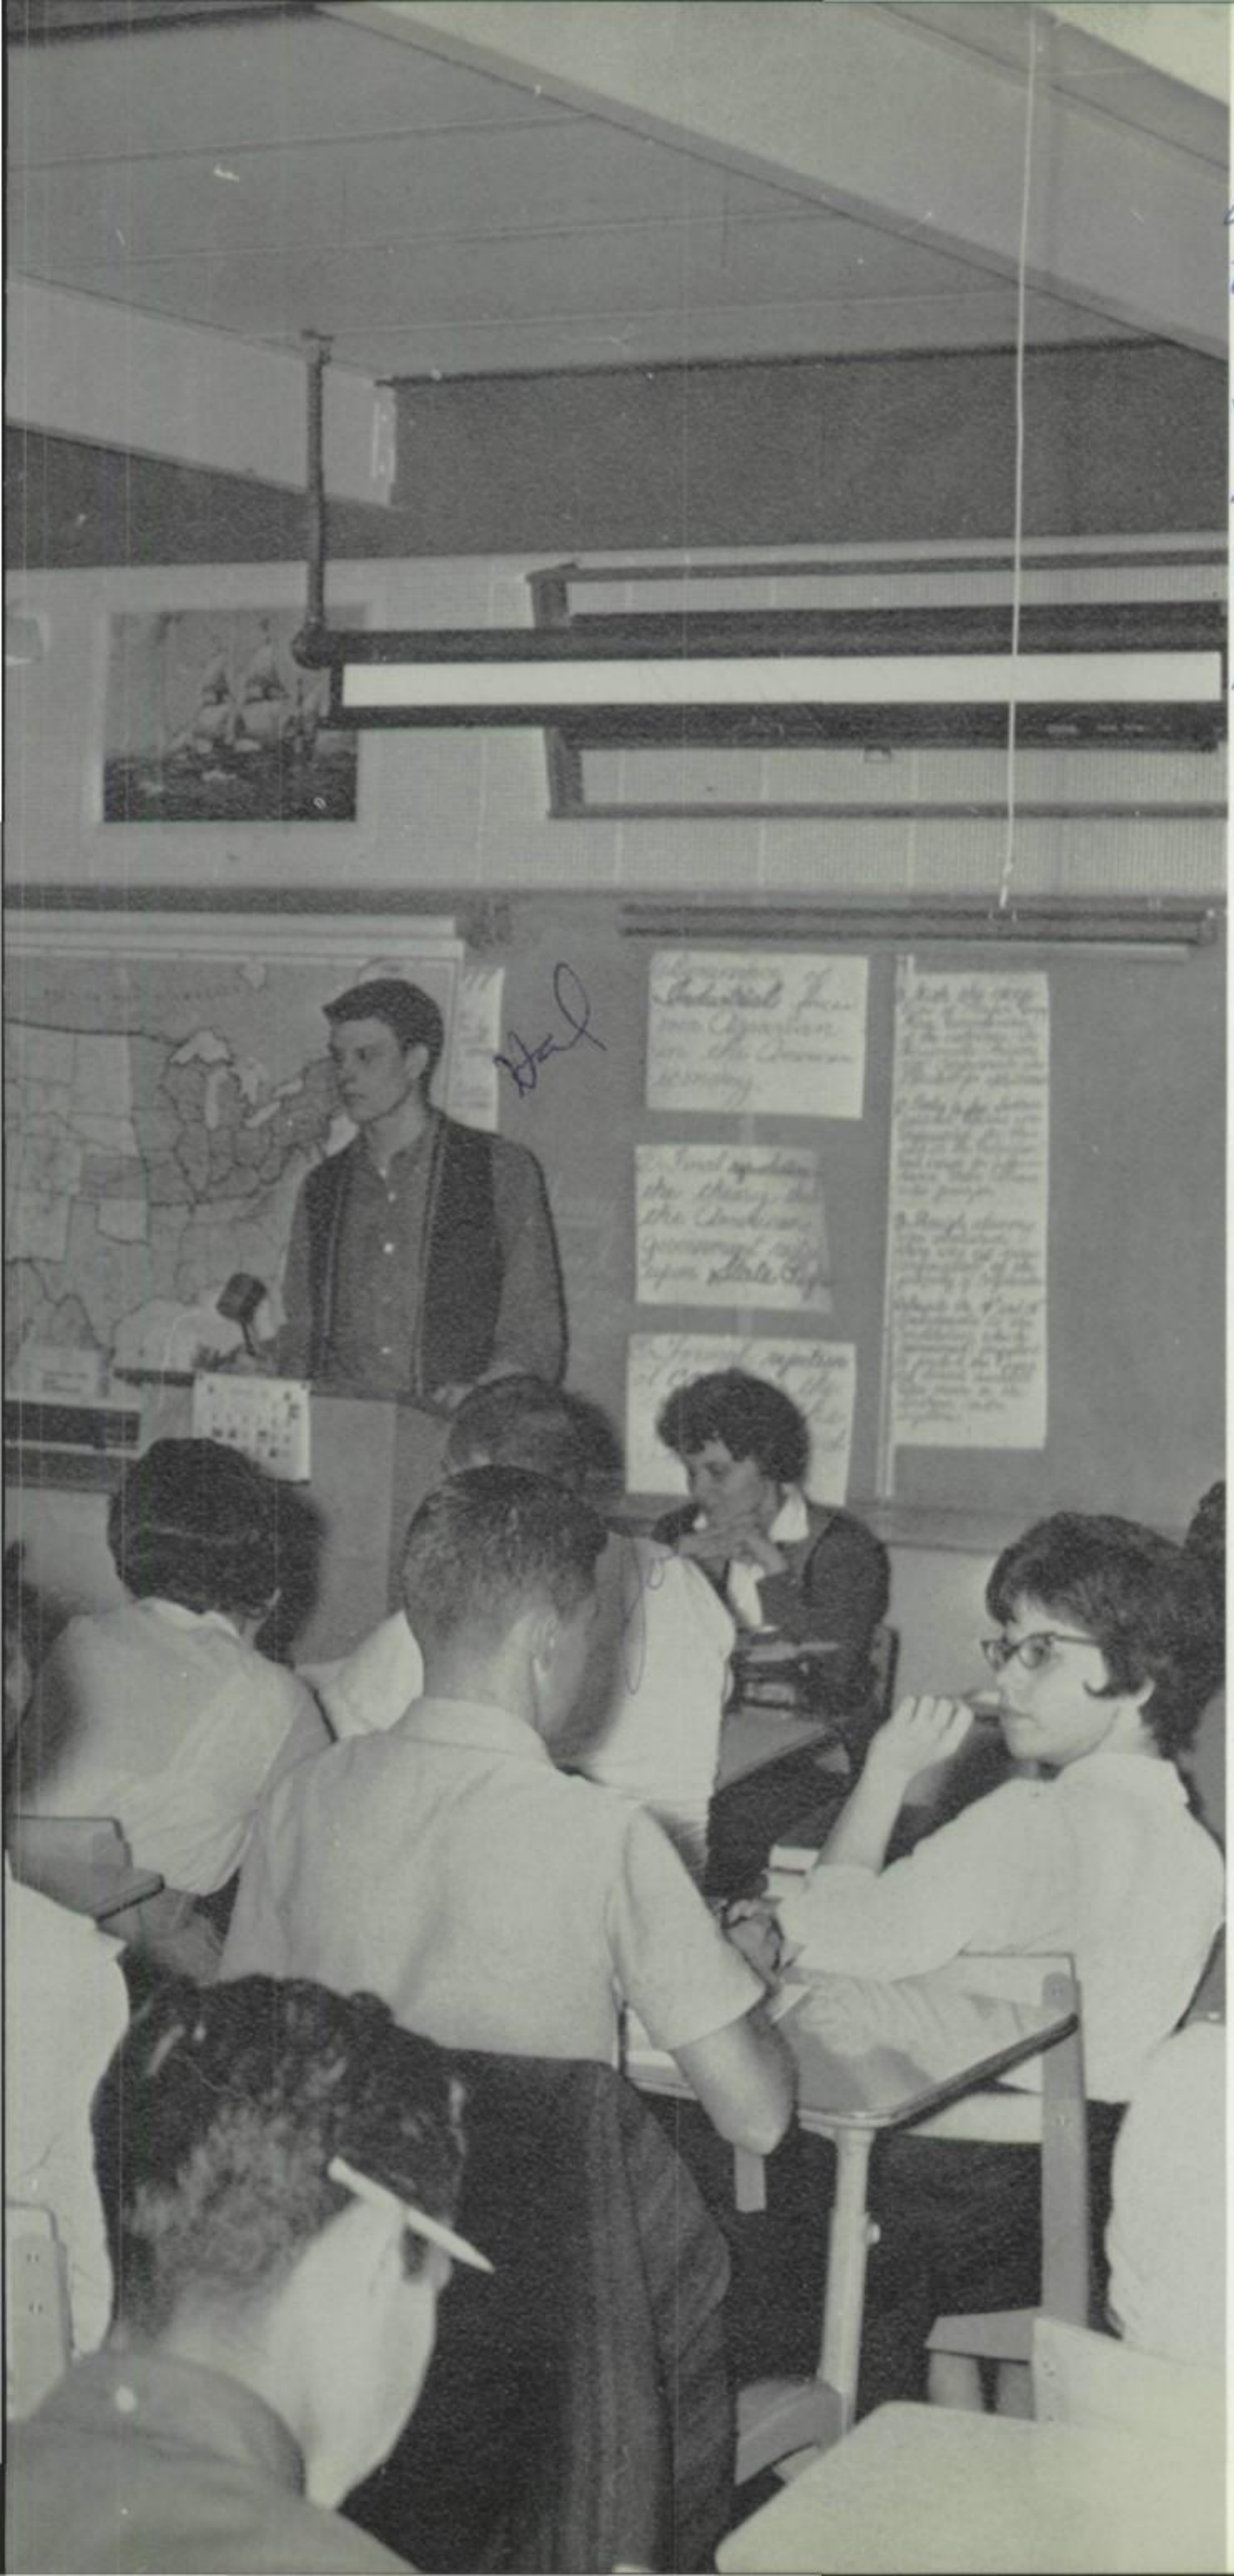
THE CAPITOL



Tom,
Although I didn't really get to know you to well this year. I always enjoyed seeing you on Campus (and running into to you too!) I hope we can become better friends in the future. Good luck to you always you're a doll!
Love ya,

Meetings in the mornings, meetings in the afternoon and meetings at supper time. Meetings is a word well known by the students at WHS. The clubs on our campus are all very active and contribute much to the every day life of a WHS student.

Les Parisiens provides an extracurricular outlet for students interested in broadening their classroom knowledge of France and her culture. Organized in 1959, it has become one of the more active clubs on the Washington High School campus.

The Happy Germans, Die Lustigen Deutschen, is an organization devoted to furthering the knowledge of its members in the Germanic culture and customs. Its membership is open to anyone who is taking or has taken German.

Club Seeks Knowledge of Germany

Their Goals Are High

To promote school spirit and to set a good example for all WHS girls are the main objectives of Lettergirls. They purposely set their goals high, then work hard to attain them.

By practical experience, by group discussion, and by study, the Future Homemakers at Washington High School learn the essentials a young wife and mother needs to hold a family together in today's modern world.

Inkslingers, the junior journalism club, held many bake sales during the year, as well as a successful pickle sale in December and a derby sale in January and February. To send deserving journalists to workshop in Flagstaff during late August was the incentive for the fund-raising projects. Meetings in class on Fridays encouraged the journalists to work with their future Ram Page staff co-workers.

The newly-formed Fellowship Club seeks to acquaint the students and faculty of Washington High with their common brotherhood with mankind. The members participated actively in the autumn National Council of Christians and Jews commemorating National Brotherhood Week. Through experience and study the club hopes to appreciate the differences in the various religions and nationalities of the world.

Tom,
Good luck always. I hope happiness will be yours for the asking. It's been lots of fun with you in History. Be good (How could you with Sydney around!) — See you soon.

They Are Not "Beatniks"

Key Club members attempt to set high standards of conduct by example. It is dedicated to proving the truth of the statement that most teenagers are honest and wholesome. Many of the members have been honored in other fields, for instance, honor roll and National Honor Society. All are respected by their classmates and teachers and are as much unlike the traditional teenage "beatnik" as a person could be.

Character–Their Motto

National Honor Society at Washington High School has always been a highly respected and active member of the school's organizations. Dedicated to the attainment of character, represented by the candles of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and service in the induction ceremony, its yearly selection of new members is a keenly anticipated event.

The Future Teachers of America at Washington High School, part of a small group of organizations called vocational clubs, hopes to acquaint its members with the problems and pleasures of the teaching profession. Sponsored by popular sophomore English teacher Mr. Percy Totheroh, it is one of the more active clubs on the WHS campus.

School Paper Advisor
ROBERT M. COOLEY

Mr. Cooley has provided friendly but firm sponsorship of the Ram Page ever since its first issue in the 1956-57 school year.

Washington High School's newspaper, the Ram Page, is put out twice a month by a small but industrious staff. Eleven news-hungry journalists, under the direction of veteran newspaperman Robert Cooley, can be found "burning the midnight oil" as each new deadline approaches. The student body receives their papers regularly because of the little-known jobs of the Ram Page staff. From planning the page layouts to writing the stories, from sweating out headlines to folding papers, these eleven seniors provide an active bond between the WHS student body and administration. This year's homecoming edition of the paper was printed in purple ink.

Editors of the Rampage: Mickey Batsell, Carolyn Zody, Janet Selb, Suzi Dashiell, Dorothy Beckmon, Sue Brehm, Bill Woodruff, Paul Myers, and Tim Ruecker.

From a flurry of picture requests to harried photographers to feverish hours in the annual room came the 1963 Panorama. The days were long and hot in September, drizzly and cold in December, and bewitchingly warm in early February—but the staff worked on, experiencing a frightening slump in mid-February. Prodded on by tiny editor-in-chief Carolyn Zody the section editors likewise prodded those under them. Through many hours of discouragement and drudgery there was one thought uppermost in the staff's minds—to hold the 1963 Panorama in their hands.

Spirit Is Their Goal

By far the most active and school-spirited club on the Washington High School campus, the Ram Rooters have represented the student body well throughout the football and basketball seasons. Members can be identified by the club emblem and purple and white uniform. Mrs. Pence, new WHS teacher, took over as sponsor of the club after Mrs. Stanley Cook left.

The most laborious step in the process is the development of the negative and printing of the picture. Tom seems unhappy about working on such a lovely spring day.

At last a critical editor receives the finished pictures but obviously here Pam is satisfied with the results.

But the process does not end here, for now Pam must return to the annual room and fit the pictures in her page layouts. It takes a lot of work to put out an annual.

Annual and Photographers Work Together

While Bob Thoma is engrossed in the flash bulb of a camera and Tom Julius and Danny Ritchie discuss a very important photo difficulty, Stu Strong laughs at a private joke.

Working long hours in the darkroom, hurrying here and there on the Washington High School campus, taking pictures from the specifications of garbled picture requests — all this the annual photographers did and more. All the pictures in the 1963 annual were the work of five harried photographers who relaxed visibly when the 3rd deadline was met.

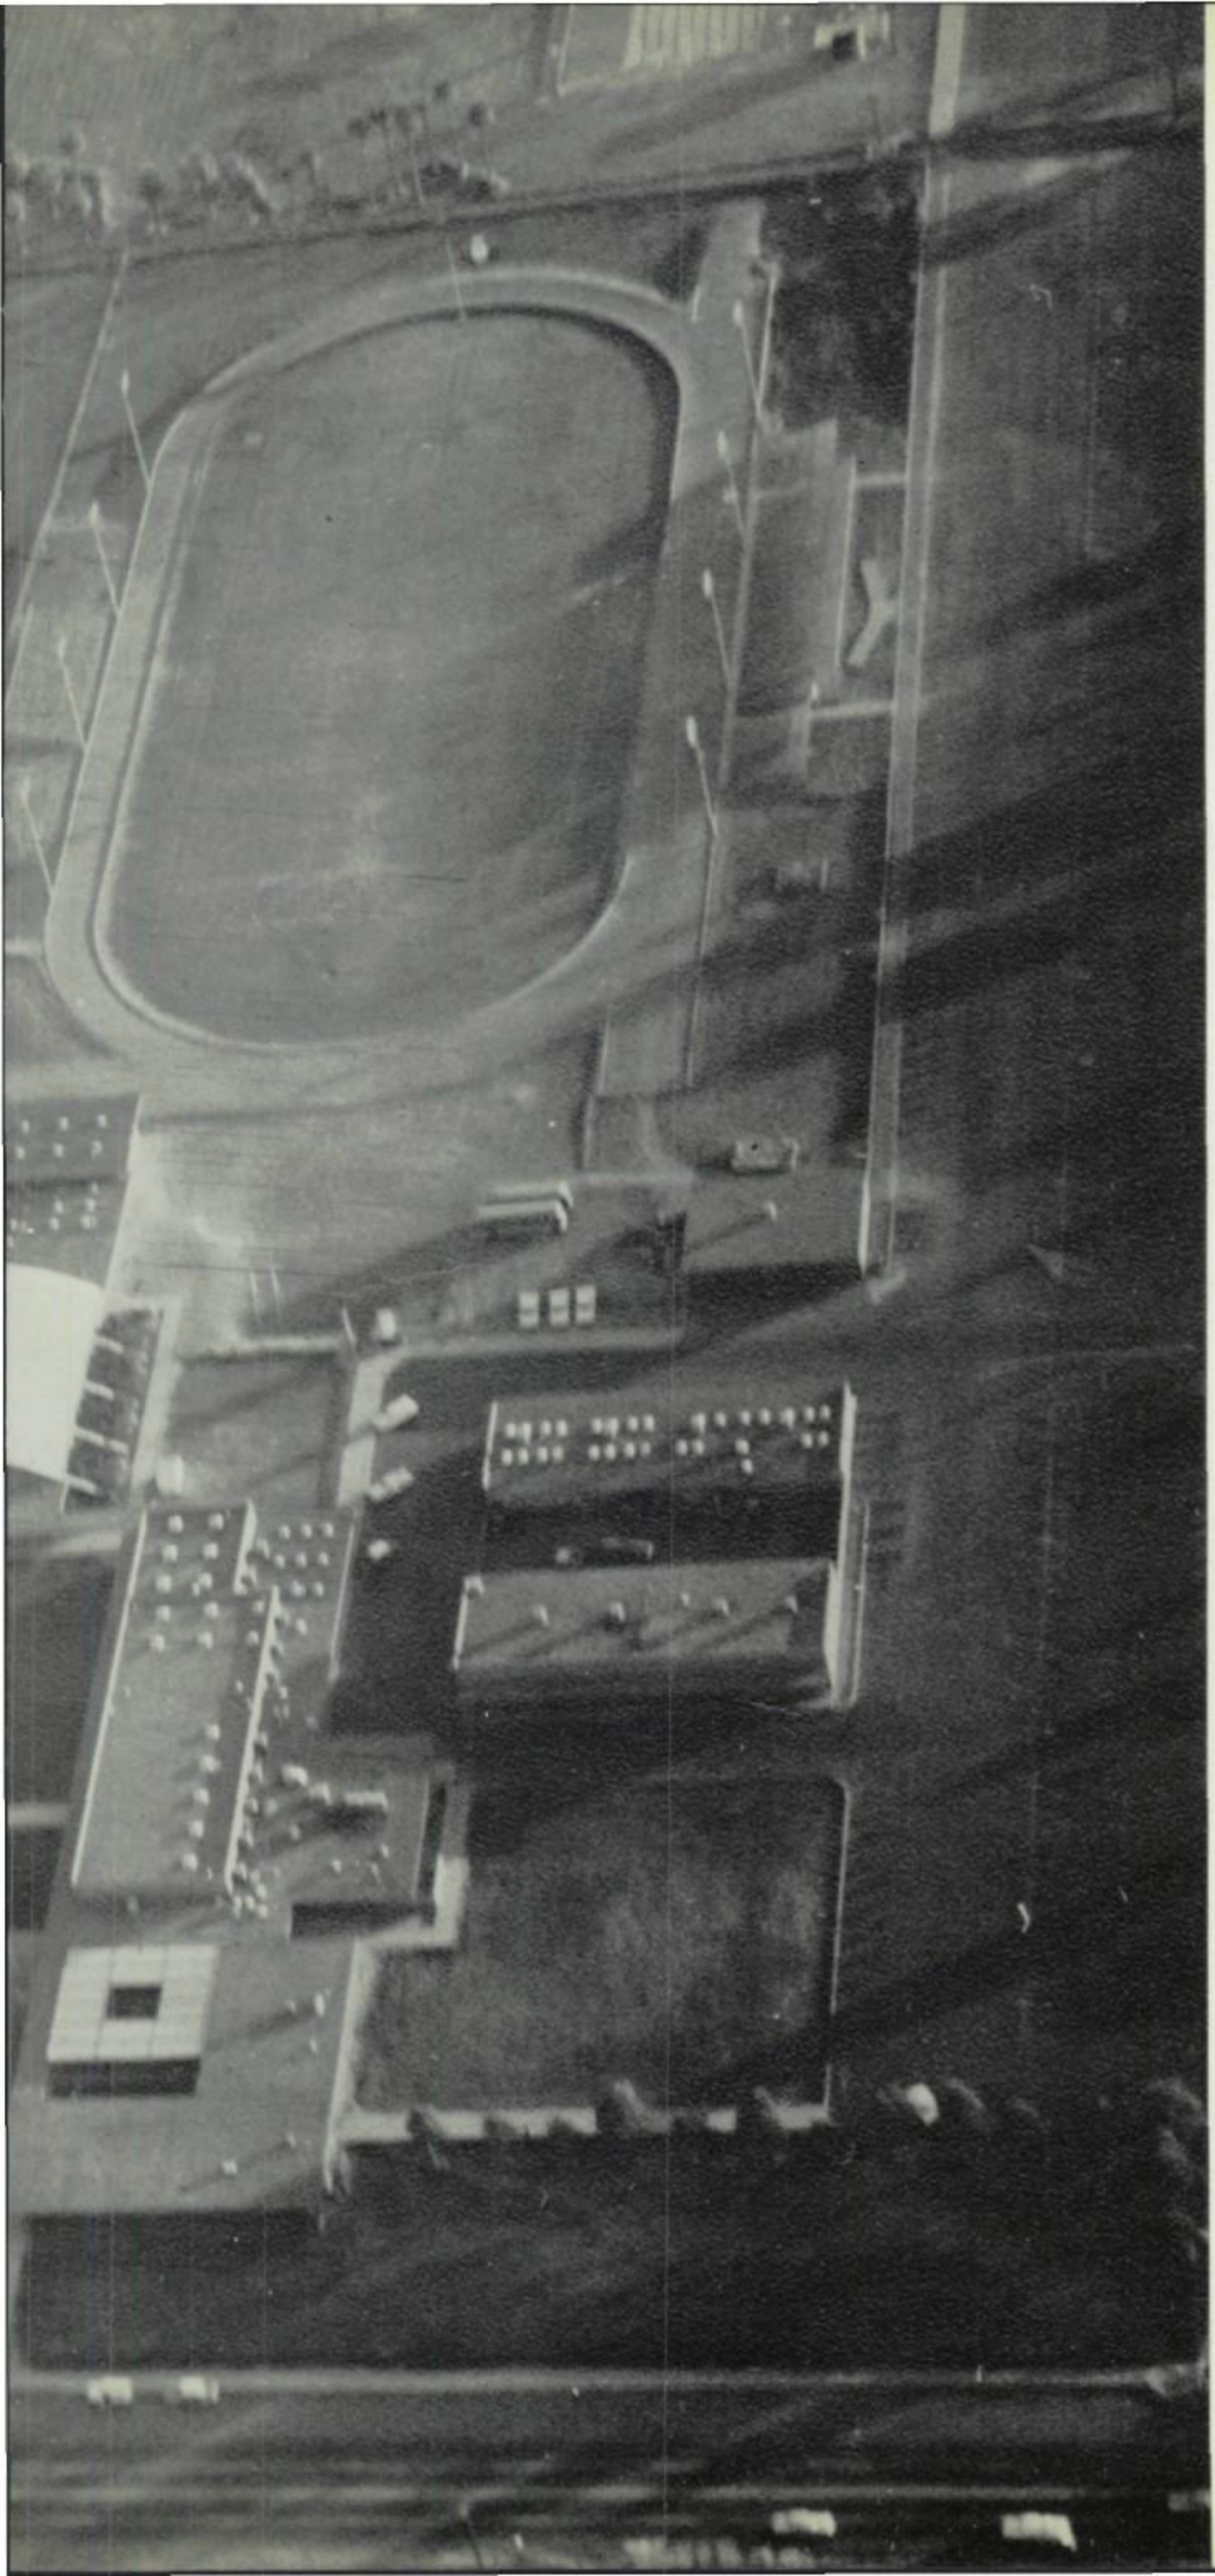
Campus Scenes



Campus Scenes

This year there have been many changes on our campus. New buildings have been added and enlarged, plus the addition of new teachers and students. Still the excitement of the games, dances, and assemblies have made it a year which we will all remember.

What is Mr. Murphy up to now!

Linda Lazzara wears one of the wig-hats that were a fad.

Bruce Frankie proves that gum wrapper chains aren't completely useless. Spectators are: Carolyn Zody, Mary Ann Ewers, Joana Boreman, Neil Grimwood, and Delores Housner.

Mrs. Murphy and Jacque Wash show us one of the campus' most used means of transportation.

Mrs. George, our new counselor, is busy in her files.

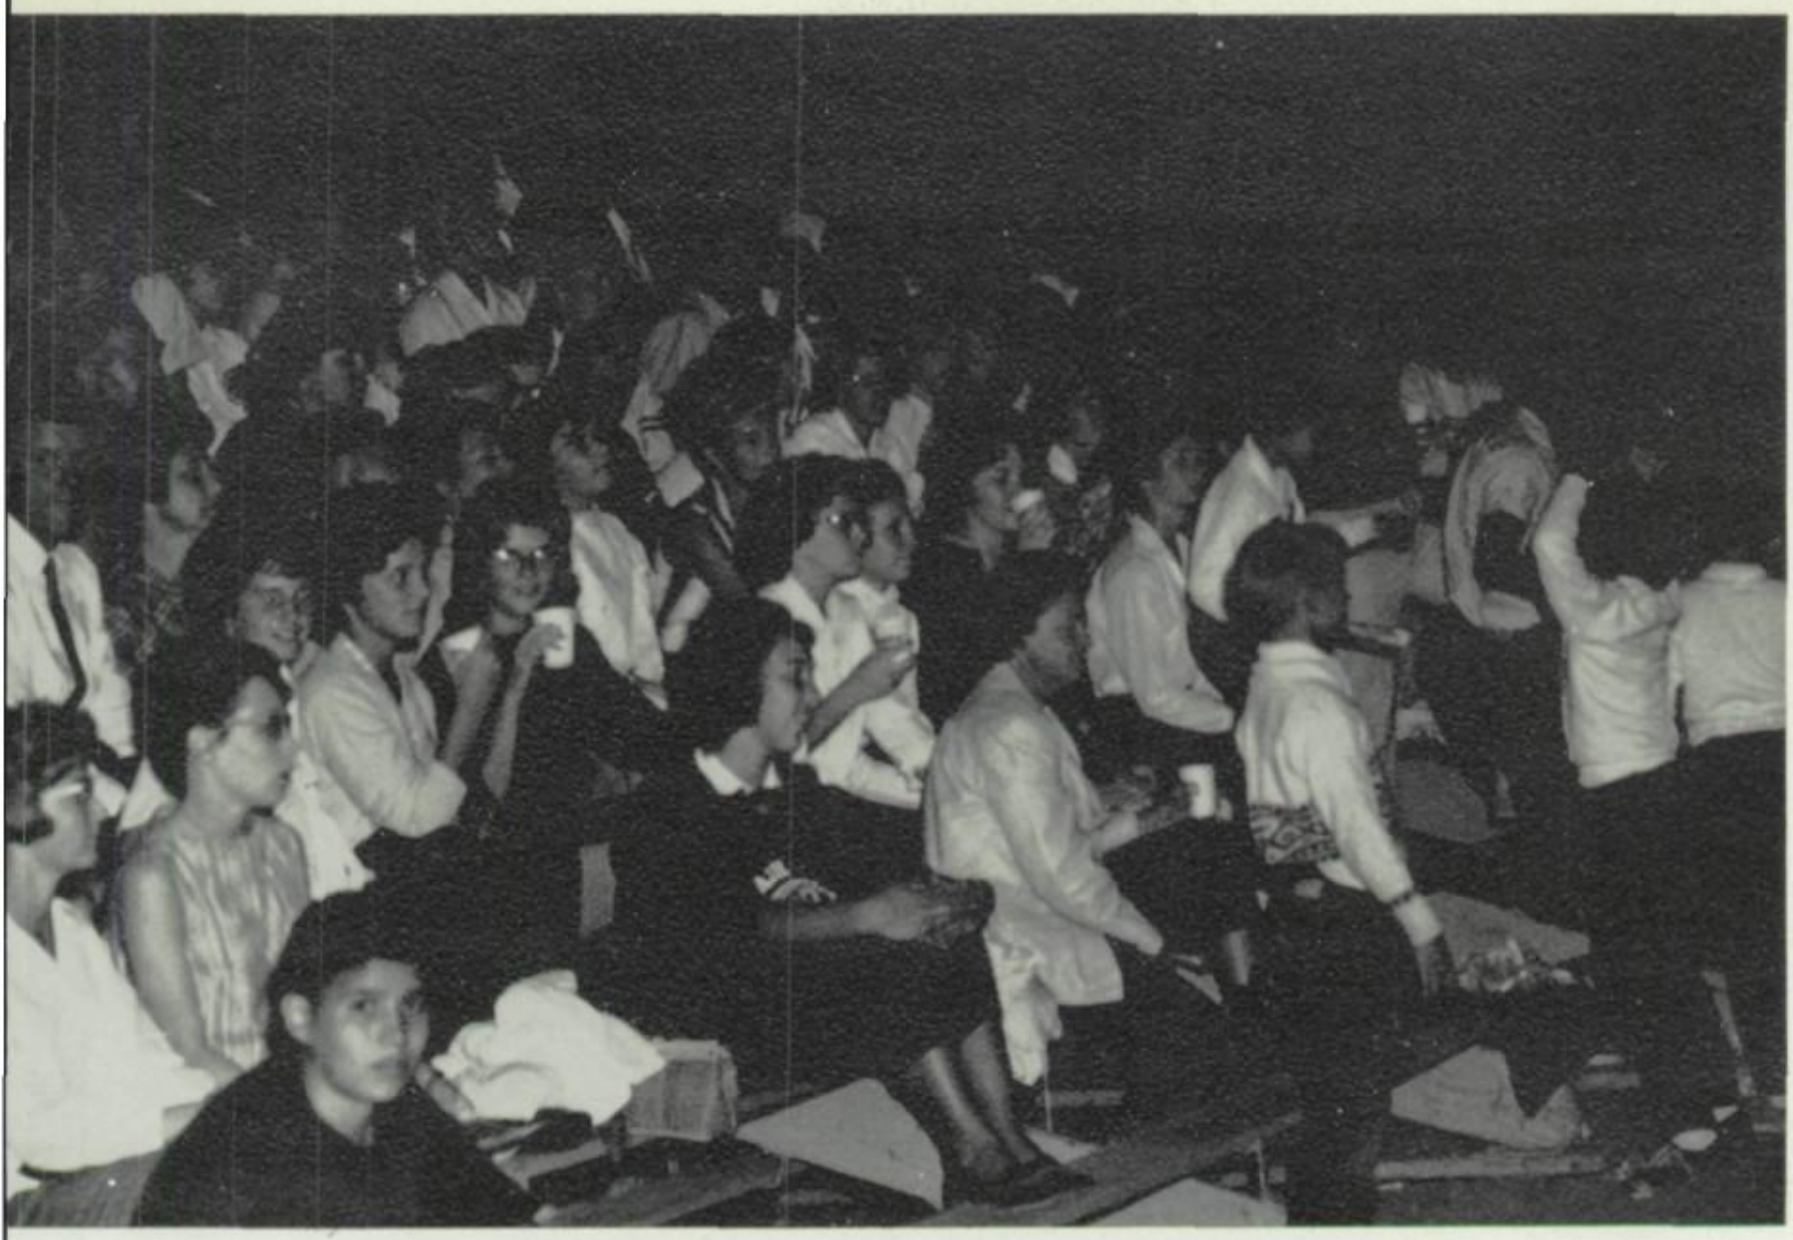
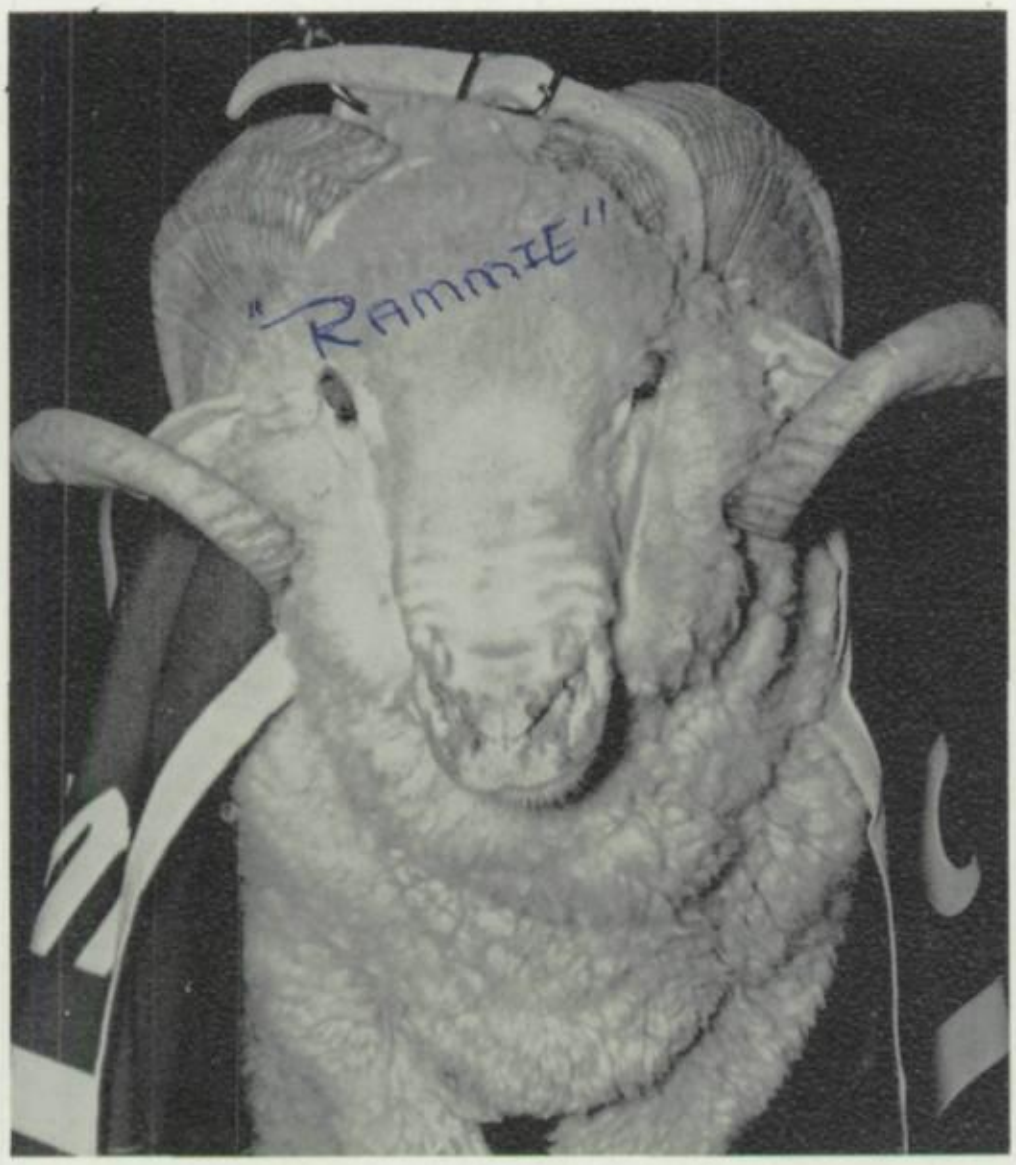
Students enjoy studying in our new library.

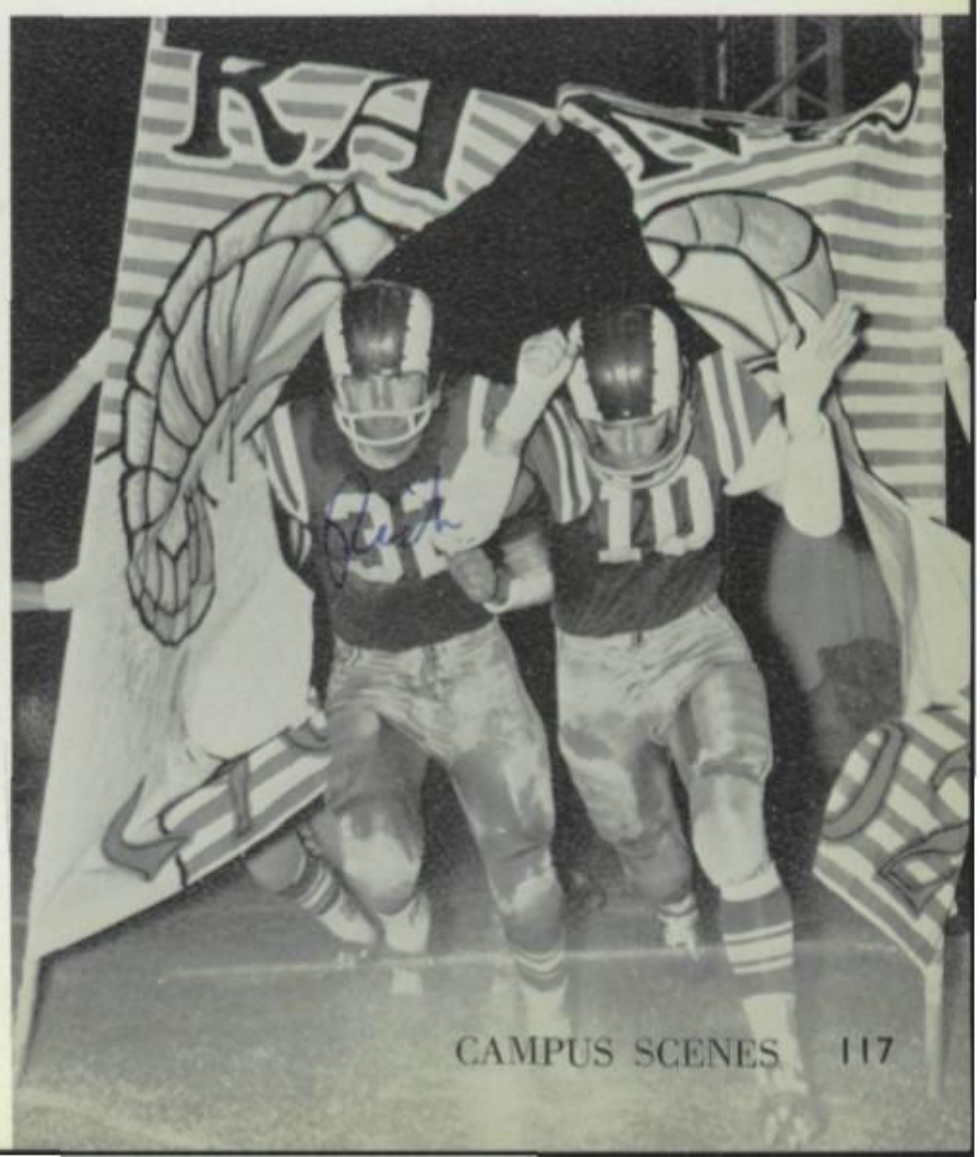


Crowd watches as "Mighty Rams" defeat Cortez 13-6.



"Rammie" attends all football games of W.H.S.

Breaking through the banner Richard Cherry 32, and Alvin Jones 10, lead the mighty Ram line on the field for the start of another victory.



"Girls!" "Abilities," "Attitudes," Imbed with these ingredients our Girls' Athletic Association, under the guidance of Miss Savey, works through intramural activities in promoting interest and sportsmanship in girls' athletics.

Miss Lois Sauer is sponsor for Girls Athletic Association.

Miss Harriet Leeke Sponsors Varsity and Junior Varsity Tennis.

Sportsmanship Is Their Goal

Mrs. Sherilyn Kinney is sponsor for Cheerleaders and Pompon Girls.

Mrs. Virginia Hufford sponsors Lettergirls and Archery.

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders work hard to keep up team spirit. They practice each day in hopes of becoming Varsity Cheerleaders next year. They should be commended on the fine job they do.

"If ya wanna win," is the topic of this "F" formed by our Varsity Cheerleaders. Top to bottom, Suzi Browner, Jeanne Besser, Gretchen Clifford. Second row, Chelly Seeds, Julieanne Egly and Francie Odum.

Promote Better School Spirit

Facing the difficulties that arise are co-captains Francie Odum, left, and Jeanne Besser, right. These girls and the rest of the squad pep up all games and promote more school spirit. Cheerleaders must maintain a "3" average in all subjects and also be able to make up new cheers and actions to go with them.

Robin Swank, Pompon Captain, has been on the squad for two years.

The pompon squad have to work and practice hard to perfect its dances. Each week a member of the squad is picked to make up a dance for the game the following Friday, then it is taught to the other members and presented during half-time at the game. This is done during basketball season. The rest of the time the whole squad adds to the making of the dances. The requirement for Pompon Girls is to maintain a "3" average.

Pompon Girls Add Vivacious Spirit

This year's pompon squad—counterclockwise: Jacque Armstrong, Robin Swank, Glenda Fogleman, Susan Burk, Sue McTyre, Neela Perry, Claudia Carlson, and Eileen Ong.

Tennis is a very hard sport to master. It takes skill, co-ordination, and knowledge.

During the year, some of the varsity girls may be cut to J.V. and some of the J.V. may make varsity.

Tennis Requires Skill

Barb Glessner is on the Junior Varsity tennis team, but with practice hopes to make varsity next year. This is what all of the J.V. girls are looking forward to.

Practice Leads to Skill

Seated, Liz Kingsley, Carol Gieryz, Nadenia Thomas, Mary Gorsline, and Christine Haynie. Standing, Eileen Sharp, Susan Roer, Sue Cosper, Sherry Gunsaulas, Sanda Stair, and Marianne Sharp. These girls are our Frosh tennis team. You can usually find them every night after school on the courts practicing for their next match.

They Have the Point of Aim

"Ready, Aim, Fire." Members of the Archery Club get set to fire a round.

Archery takes a lot of concentration and control. The closer you come to the bulls-eye the higher your score will become. The more you practice the more co-ordination and skill you develop.

Timing Important in Badminton

These "sports" pictures were taken one day after school. At right, Lee Zvoner seems to be telling the other girls what to do before getting down to more serious work.

My locker

At right, Sharon Hatlestead, Sharon Congleton, Charlotte Wolf, and Chris Schupbach are holding up Sydney Siepel, Pam Mitchell, Patte Bohl, and Missy Leighton. But the real pressure is on Lu Lu Smith.

The above girls joined the bowling club instead of going to the regular G.A.A. Wednesday night activities. They receive pins for their achievements in bowling. Every Monday afternoon after school the club meets at 300 Bowl to bowl for fun and exercise.

G.A.A. Pinbusters

Fencing

Other officers are Chelly Seeds, corresponding secretary, Francie Odum, treasurer, and Jackie Wash, publicity.

Dance

Boys Sports

Seniors at Washington hang up their athletic gear for the last time this season so that new forces can represent the purple and white on the gridiron, court, and track. We can be proud of our athletes for the fine reputation that they have built for Washington High sports. Let us now resolve to carry on the fine tradition these Rams have established in the past.

Practice was hard and the weather hot as the Mighty Rams prepared for the season opener against Amphitheater. Randy Willer practices a wide sweep against a new defense line, Coach Ed Sine, director.

Varsity Football Is Hard Work

Richard Cherry (32) blocks for Halfback Allen Agersea (13) as Allen is tripped up by a Glendale Cardinal. Glendale won 21-13.

Mickey Batsell grabs a Washington aerial for 15 yards against Glendale. Glendale managed to stop the stubborn Rams.

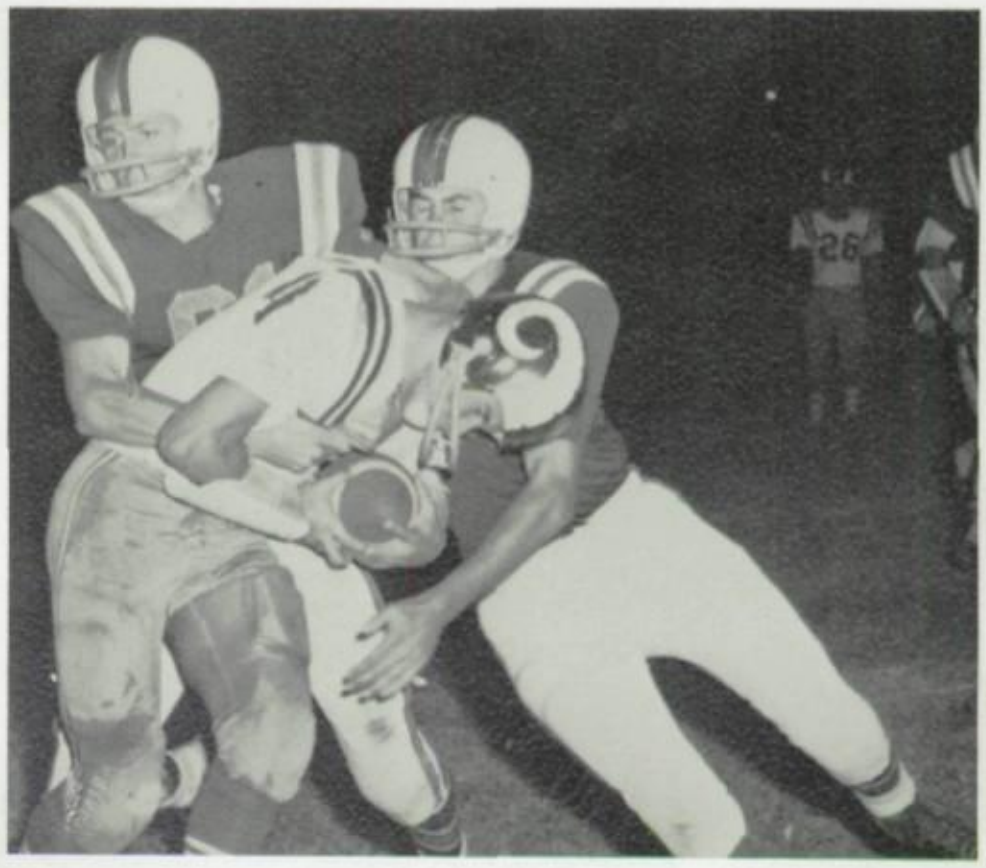
All State guard Rodger Soderburg shows a perfect stance in preparation for the Scottsdale encounter. Soderburg received the Most Valuable Player award for the 1962 season.

Bull doging for a first down is Halfback Allen Agersea just out of the reach of an unidentified Prescott Badger. Washington "mighty mites" bombed Prescott 58-6.

"Follow me," says Allen Agersea (13) as Wally Maulsby (28) looks for an opening against Amphi. Agersea was voted Prep. Player of the week. W.H.S. won 38-0.

Varsity Highlights

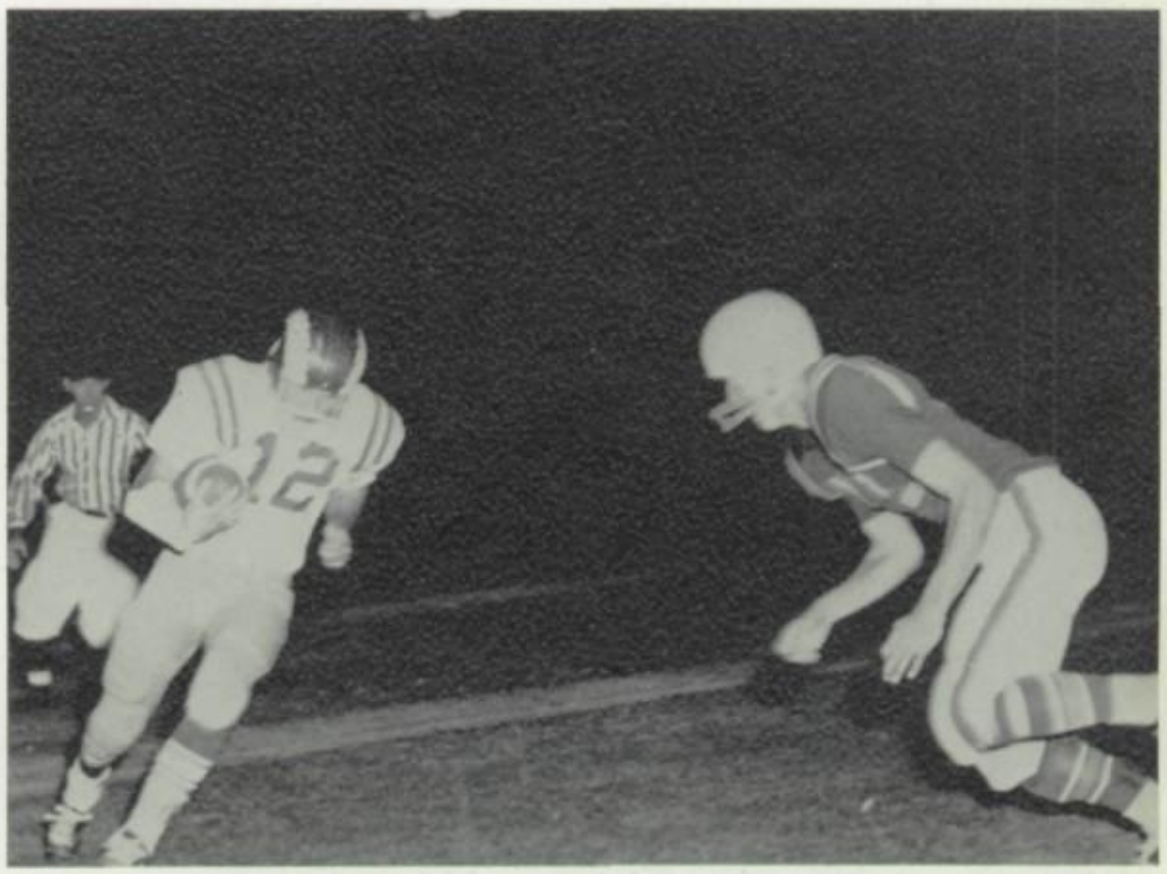
Ram Halfback Mickey Batsell pile driver for 6 yards up the middle in W.H.S. season opener. Amphitheater fell to the mighty Rams by a 44-0 count.



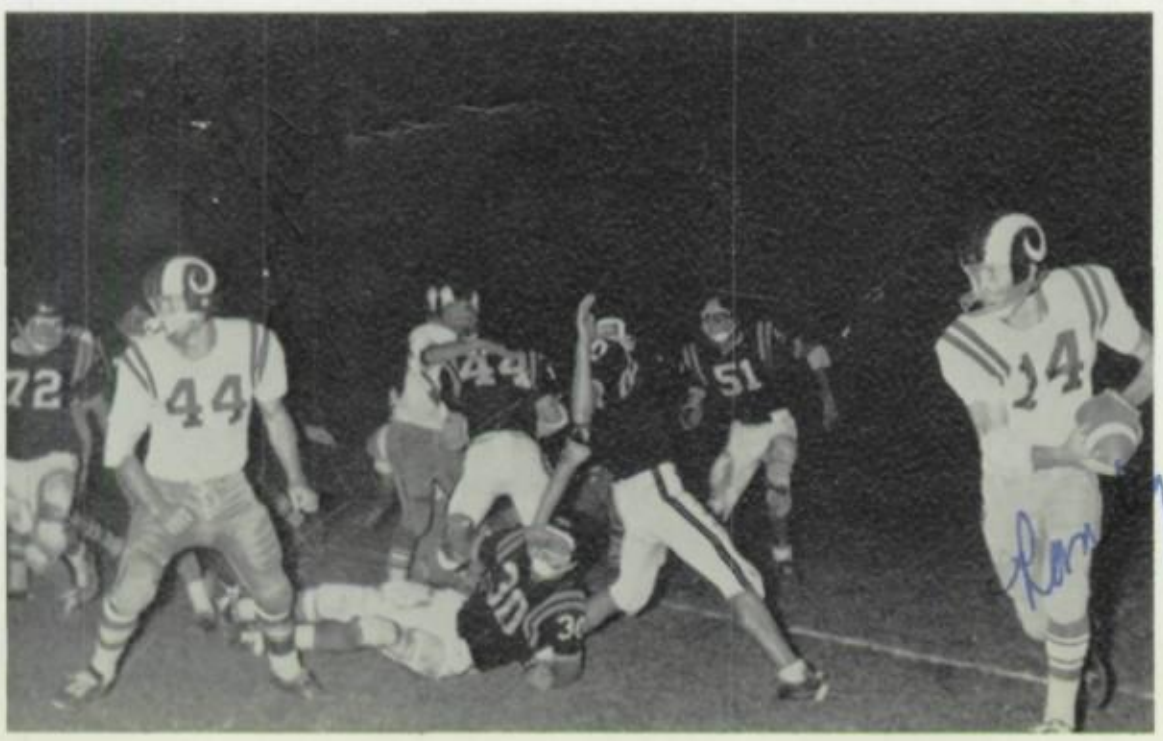
Senior Quarterback Mike Roether rambles over Sunnyslope safety Dick Smyser for 12 yards. Roether led the Rams to their first win over Sunnyslope since 1959. WHS won 40-6.

Quarterback Mike Roether (26) dashes down the sideline for an opening kick-off touchdown that was called back for a penalty. Throwing block in background is Mickey Batsell (11). Glendale beat the Rams 21-13.

Receiving last day instructions before the St. Mary's game from head coach Karl Ulichny and Harvey Jensen, backfield coach, are the Ram backs.



Steamrolling into "Pay dirt" is Fullback Tim Van Horn (12). The helpless Sunnyslope Viking didn't stop Tim as the Rams "Stomped Slope," 40-26.



Halfback Randy Willer (14) looks to cut up field as John Stevens (44) prepares to throw block against a Scottsdale Beaver during the homecoming game in which Washington won 44-13.

Defensive Safety Dave Hall (22) scoops up a Cortez fumble as Mike Roether (26) prepares to lead interference. Washington won by a narrow 13-6 score.

"First Down" Quarterback Mike Roether (26) inches forward for an all-important first down against Brophy. Brophy won by an 8-6 count.

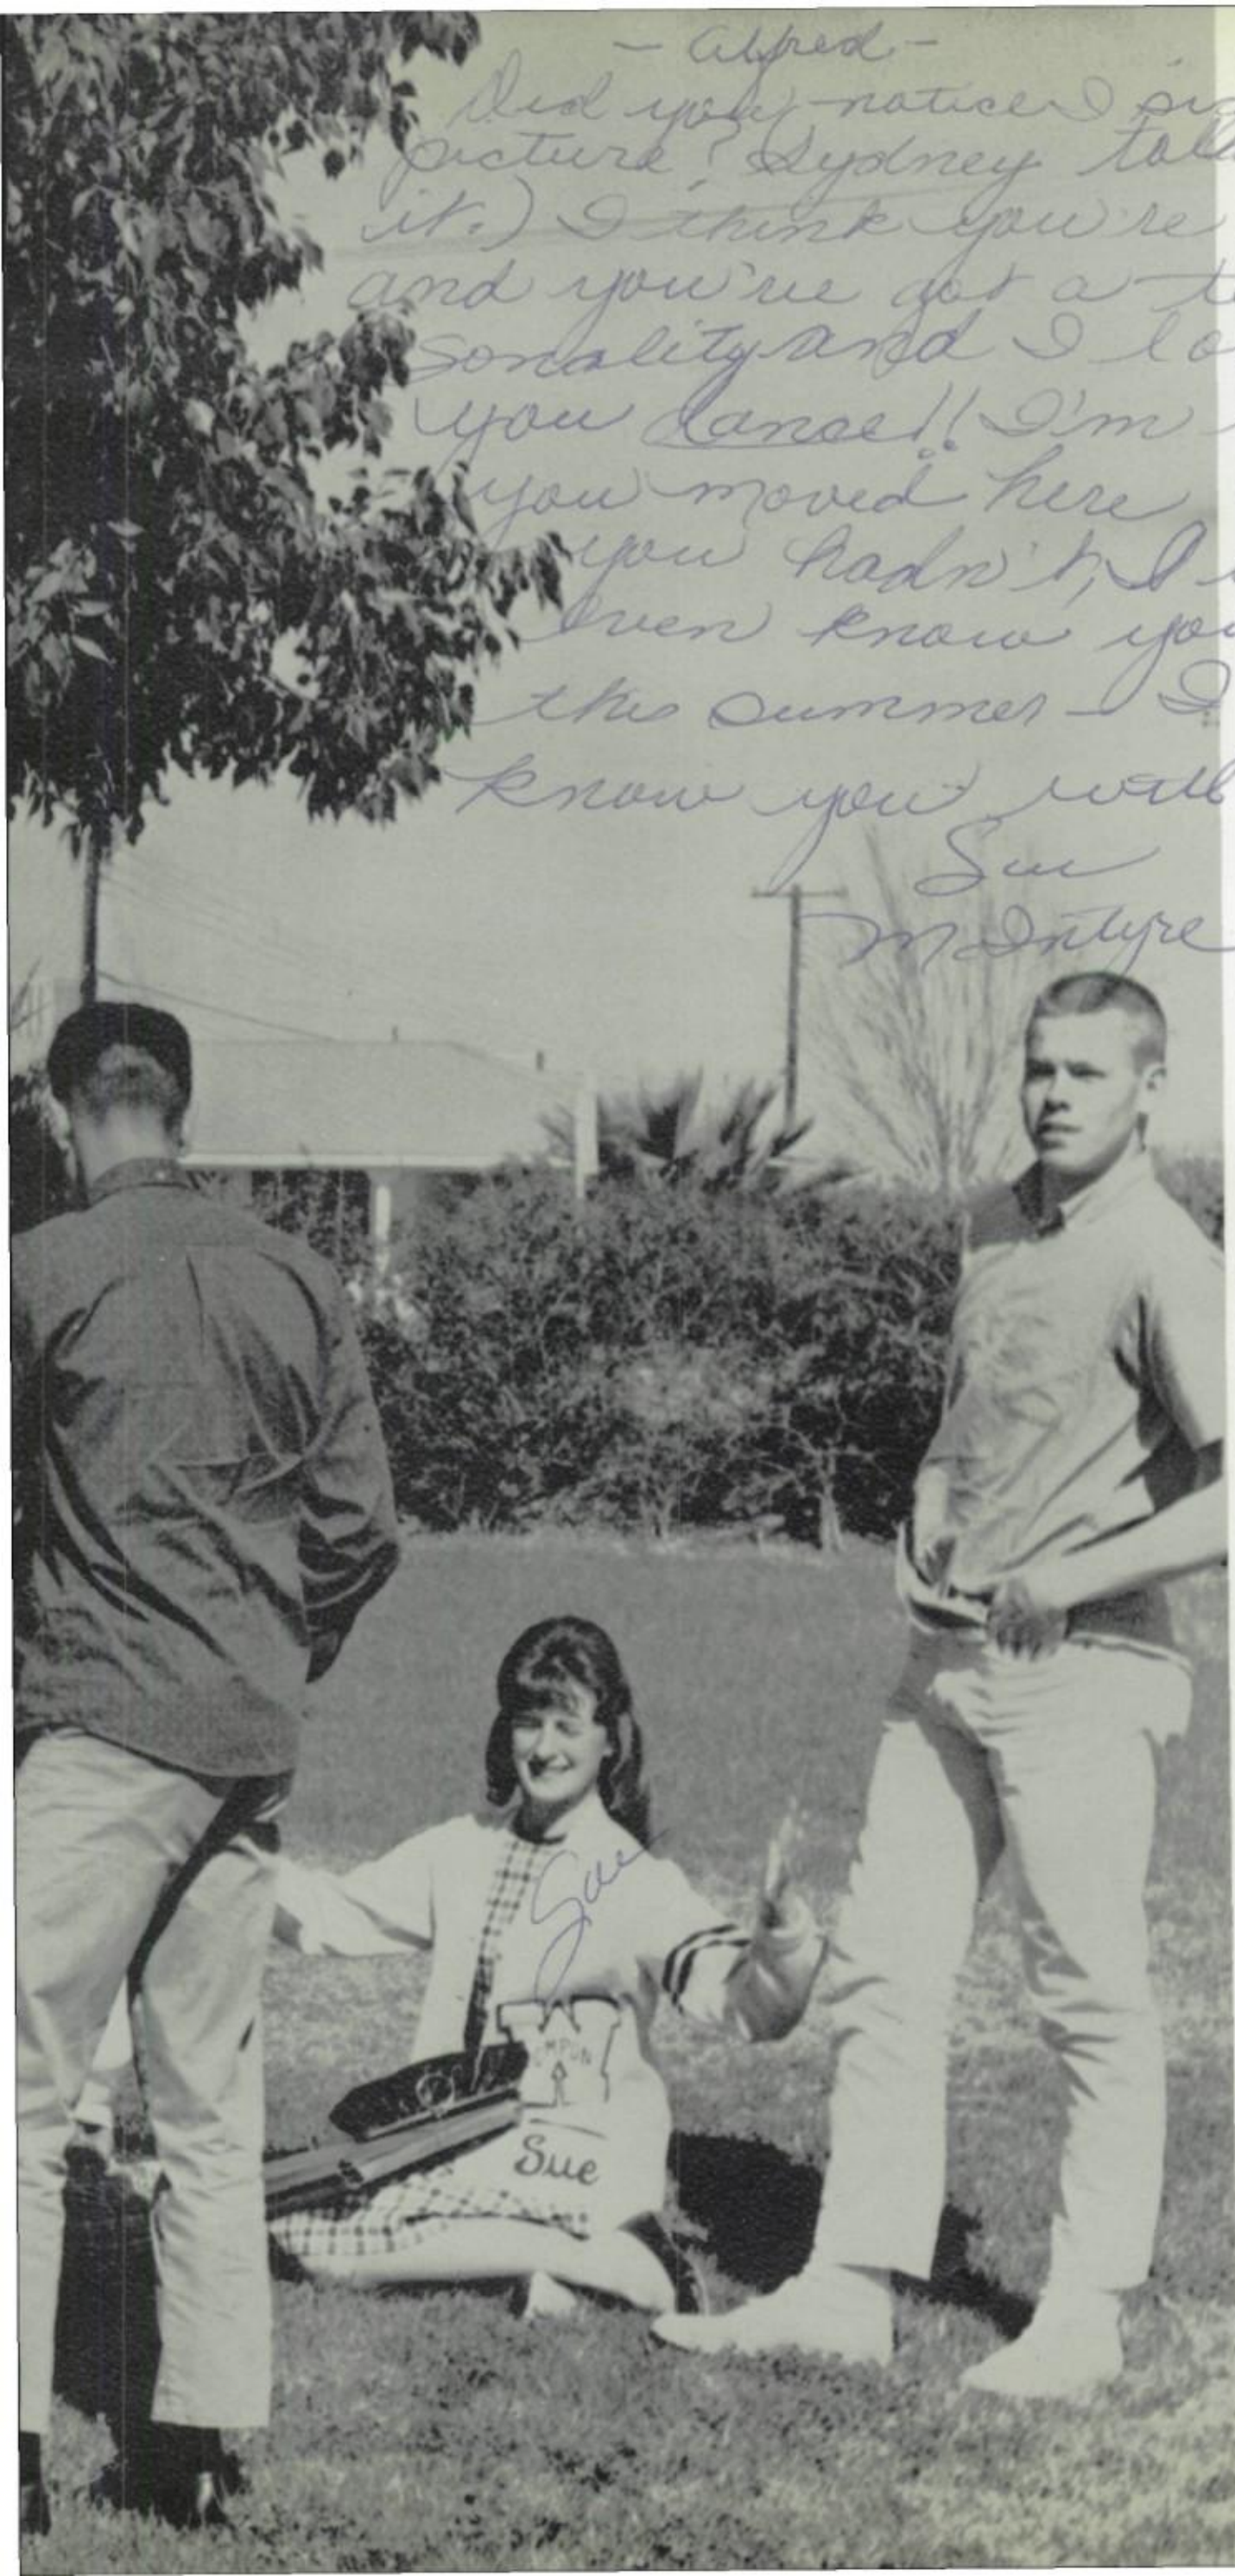
Mr. Ditterline's 6th hour government class watches slides on the American governmental system.



— Alfred —
Did you notice I signed every picture? Sydney told me to do it.) I think you're really a doll and you've got a terrific personality and I love the way you dance!! I'm really glad you moved here because if you hadn't, I wouldn't have even known you. Have fun this summer & I know you will —

Junior Class

As these juniors relax and converse over school assignments, the latest history exam, and last Friday night's dance, they're filing away memories of their junior year. Memories which will include all the different people they served at the snack bar on cold, football nights, the arguments and jokes loudly spoken while packing mistletoe bags for Christmas, not to mention the hours and hours spent madly trying to finish the decorations for the Sweetheart semi-formal. Ah, but there's still one more important memory juniors will cherish. All their time and efforts have been channeled in this direction. The road was perhaps rocky and dusty at times, but once the Junior - Senior Prom began the junior could sigh with content and happiness over a successful year at WHS.

WHS FIGHT SONG

Go Rams, go, no matter who the foe may be

Go Rams, go, we're out to win, so be it

On to victory, it's

Roll Rams, Roll, and run the score up to the sky

For the White and Purple do or die, so

Go Rams for Washington High.

Sophomore Class

Great was the year for the class of '65. Not only had they successfully bridged the gap from first to second year status; they had also accomplished the move with dignity and a sense of growing up. Freshmen can be so childish at times, the sophomores could agree. They could take a lesson from adults like us SOPHS! But let's give them time say, a year!

Class officers have worked very had this year for their fellow students. They are as following, Roberta Dunda, Kathy Browner, Bill Kuchel, Jeri Wood, and Dorothy Trammell.

Roberta Dunda, Mrs. Delvin, Jeri Wood, Mr. Totheroh, Kathy Browner, Bill Kuchel, Dorothy Trammell, and Mr. Rogers are the class sponsors and officers of 1962.

Class Sponsors for this year have been very helpful to the Sophomore class. They are Mr. Totheroh, Mrs. Delvin, and Mr. Rogers.

The freshman's first week on campus is always confusing. After that first week, however, they soon learn the ways of high school students and adjust to them quickly. This class of '66 shows much promise of being a credit to WHS.

Without advertising there could be no annual. This basic and important fact was impressed on the annual staff in early September and stressed again and again as the year progressed. Most businesses were friendly and receptive to members of the annual staff who approached them. Because of this cooperation, the 1963 Panorama is in your hands now.

-Tom-
To a really great guy with a fabulous personality. It has really been a pleasure being in your history class this year. Keep that darling girl by yours. She's really a great girl! Stay just as you are Tommy and you're sure to go far in life.
Always,
Chris Schuplack

(RESERVED)

Thomas Alfred,

To my favoritist neighbor (I wonder why?) and very best friend (in any way possible). Well, Tommy I just dont exactly know what to say. You know that Im not very good at this kind of stuff 'cause it's just not like me. I read what you wrote in my annual and I didn't know that there could possibly anyone in the whole wide world half as sweet & considerate as you. It really made me bawl like a baby (because) it was actually (if you don't mind) beautiful? I don't know as I would too much care for a left arm (unless of course there is a body, like you, attached)

I can't let you think for a minute that our little quarrels were your fault at all. On the contrary, everything was, caused, been mine. I hope you can forgive me for all of the mean, childish things I've done to you. Just to show you how funky I am let's look at the previously mentioned instances; I somehow have forgotten at times how much you really mean to me (which is an awfully lot). I could really kick myself because there are very few people who are as sweet & considerate as you. Say it will never again slip my mind. How can you actually stand to even be civil to me? You treat me much better than I ever, ever could deserve. No one else could be versatile enough to even attempt going with me and all of my little moods (mostly bad). You are much too nice to me.

We have had some pretty scathing fights, but they are few and far between compared to all of the fun we've had with you. Homecoming, Sweetheart, the Prom, and numerous others we've gone to. Remember that cloud 9? I don't see how any of us could ever forget it. Im so glad we decided on the Islands instead of that other place. That was a very memorable evening. Or we could say night and morning. = 5:30 a.m. You! That was sick & inept.

We will be leaving one another tomorrow and I think I will literally die without you. What am I ever going to do?

I HOPE YOU ARE ABLE TO DECIPHER THIS.

Well, here I am again & I really feel like a junk, fruit, squirrel etc! The Manchurian Candidate was good, but it scares me.

I doubt if there is anything I can do to keep you from forgetting me as you will probably be better off if you do. All I can do is hope & pray that you won't.

You know something? Despite everything I've really changed a lot this year. It may not be better but it sure is different! (I always start out writing small & end up with it big). I'm always like a Fink but please don't hold it against me.

Actually I can't expect you to sit home for three weeks doing nothing, but don't do anything too drastic Okay? I won't know what to say when I get back 'cause I'm afraid you will be completely different & just laugh at me or something like that. Isn't there some way I could sneak over along? Mama bear, I had best quit talking that way. (I mean about leaving). Just remember that I'll be thinking about you every minute, of every hour of every day of every week I'm gone. Say a prayer for me whenever you think of it and I'll do the same for you. Do you get the impression that someone is in my way? I sure do!! (Barf)

Tom (Prince, Maharajah, & all that jazz)

I've really enjoyed knowing you. You've made me laugh so hard sometimes I could hardly make it out the door. Honestly Tom, I think you have the most terrific personality. Have a panic this summer. Be good & keep smiling.

Luck & Love,

Lee

[redacted] sweetest one I know. I couldn't live without you ever and I'll never forget you in a million, trillion yrs.

Tommy, one day you will look back on this & wonder why the heck this fink was. If that day should come I hope you are the happiest person in the world. Best wishes for everything always. From now until the 12th of Nov. there will always be a place for you in my heart & don't you ever forget that!

Love Always, Sydney.
